

SKOCH SMART TECHNOLOGY AWARD 2015

SKOCH Smart Technology Award 2015 is an initiative towards recognising top performing Technology Users, Technology Implementers & Technology Providers across sectors, organisations and departments. These include, amongst others, Central and State Government Departments; Financial Sector; Municipal Corporations; Smart Cities; State Owned Enterprises; State Government Undertakings; Private and Multinational Organisations; and, Organisations engaged with the Government – operating at local, state and national level. The areas include Cloud/Mobility/Apps; Education & Skill Development; Urban Development; Solid Waste Management; Water & Waste Water; Agriculture and Organic; and, Power, Renewable Energy & Batteries, and so on. It is a step towards encouraging, recognising and promoting the best applications of technologies across sectors/domains.

National Handicapped Finance and Development Corporation have participated and submitted application for the SKOCH Award 2015 under the category “Technologies for Education and Skill Development” as “Disable Friendly Website of NHFDC(www.nhfdc.nic.in), Online web application for Scholarship, Education and Skill development”.

In this regard, NHFDC has received SKOCH Order of Merit Award on 10th Dec,2015 at India Habitat Centre, New Delhi out of more than 1000 different projects submitted for the SKOCH Award and also received SKOCH Smart Technology Award 2015 on 11th Dec, 2015 from Chairman, SKOCH Group for the project “Disable Friendly Website, Online web application for Scholarship, Education and Skill development” by Shri P. C. Das, CMD, NHFDC did receive the Award.

