The Department of Empowerment of Persons with Disabilities (Divyangjan), Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment felicitated the Rio Paralympic medallists, members of T-20 Asia Cup Indian Blind Cricket Team and Indian Blind Para & Para Judo Team here at a function in Vigyan Bhawan today. The Department presented Cash Awards of a total of Rs 90 lakhs to the Rio Paralympic medallists and Rs 28.5 lakh to 19 members of the Indian Blind Cricket team under Awareness Generation and Publicity (AGP) scheme.

The felicitation programme was held in the august presence of the Union Minister for Social Justice & Empowerment Shri Thaawarchand Gehlot who was also the Chief Guest of the programme. Minister of State for Youth Affairs and Sports (Independent Charge) Shri Vijay Goel presided over the function. Minister of State for Planning (Independent Charge), Urban Development, Housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation and President of Paralympic Committee of India Shri Rao Inderjit Singh, Ministers of State for Social Justice & Empowerment Shri Ramdas Athawale and Shri Krishan Pal Gurjar also graced the occasion.

Addressing the gathering Shri Thaawarchand Gehlot congratulated the Rio Paralympic medallists, the members of T-20 Asia Cup Indian Blind Cricket Team and Indian Blind & Para Judo Team on their recent performance in their respective games. He also announced setting up five National Level Disability Sports Centres for Players with Disability in five zones of the country.

“I believe that such events will encourage participation of Divyangjan in sports and I promise all possible help to players with disabilities in future,” said Shri Thaawarchand Gehlot.

“I fully agree with Shri Rao Inderjit Singh and extend my full support to organise Paralympics in India,” Shri Gehlot added.

Addressing the cheerful audience, Shri Rao Inderjit Singh, who is also the President of Paralympic Committee of India, called for reforms in Indian Sports and emphasised that along with winners, the participants have to be encouraged and supported.

“Recognising these players for the achievements, they have done is great, but I feel, we should use them as a nucleus to prepare for the Japan Olympics in 2020,” suggested Rao Inderjit Singh.

Before this, Shri Singh also proposed to organise Paralympics in India.

Recollecting words of the Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, Minister of State for Youth Affairs and Sports (Independent Charge) Shri Vijay Goel called for equal status to all sports. He also extended his full cooperation for organising Paralympics in India. He declared all sports facilities and stadiums will be thrown open to encourage sports in the country.

Moreover, Shri Goel announced a dedicated portal for young budding players.

“Very soon we will launch a web portal for young players, if you find any talent around yourself, please upload his/her video clip on the portal and if we will definitely help such players,”

Expressing his pleasure, Minister for State for Social Justice & Empowerment Shri Krishan Pal Gurjar proposed vote of thanks to dignitaries and players while Minister for State for Social Justice & Empowerment Shri Ramdas Athawale congratulated Rio Paralympic medallists, members of T-20 Asia Cup Indian Blind Cricket and Indian Blind Para Teams.
